NEWS – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Heat Exchange Institute Clarifies Date of Release for Addendum to Condenser Standard

The Heat Exchange Institute (HEI) clarified that Addendum 1 to the 9th edition of Standards for Steam Surface Condensers was released in December 2002. The addendum was printed showing a publication date of 2002. Several companies and individuals requested a more precise release date for contractual and records keeping purposes.

The addendum is being sold for $75.00 US, with the standard and addendum being sold together for $125 US. Both the addendum and the standard may be purchased by contacting the HEI office via telephone at 216-241-7333, via e-mail at hei@heatexchange.org, or by visiting the HEI website.

The Heat Exchange Institute (HEI) is a non-profit trade association committed to the technical advancement, promotion and understanding of a broad range of utility and industrial-scale heat exchange and vacuum apparatus. The Institute concentrates its efforts on the manufacturing and engineering aspects of steam surface condensers, closed feedwater heaters, power plant heat exchangers, liquid ring vacuum pumps, steam jet ejectors and deaerators.

Since its founding over 60 years ago, the Institute has earned international recognition as the leading authority on the technologies for heat exchange and vacuum apparatus. Institute standards are used throughout the world for the design, manufacture and operation of heat exchange and vacuum equipment.
